A Typewriter

Is far speedier than the pen.

Its work is far more legible.

Typewritten letters are more easily checked, filed, and looked up than hand-written documents.

The Typewriter

IS THE

Remington Typewriter.

It is simple in construction, and embodies the best devices applicable to the typewriter.

Hence it is thoroughly reliable.

Unpractical devices, however fascinating in appearance, are rigidly excluded from the Remington.

It is made of the best materials, under the closest supervision, and thus each individual machine is up to the high standard of excellence established by the manufacturers.

It is the machine for taking a number of copies at one writing.
